On October 13, 2007, GPD Officers notified Alfred Cruz that his firearms were stolen as they were recovered in the course of another investigation. Mr. Cruz was unaware the firearms were stolen until GPD Officers informed him. After checking the storage location, Mr. Cruz noted that his four shotguns and one rifle were missing. He made a formal complaint with GPD regarding the theft. Mr. Cruz stated that only family members knew where he stored his firearms and the last time someone visited his home was on October 11, 2007. The family members that visited the home were his sister in law, Isabel Araneta, and her two minor sons J.J.A. and J.A.

In the course of their investigation GPD Officers noted Ignacio R. Quichocho and two minors, J.J.A. and A.J.C. to be involved with the theft and transfer of the firearms. Ignacio R. Quichocho was questioned and indicated that on October 11, 2007, the guns were stolen from the residence of Alfred Cruz. He stated that he parked his car away from the entrance of the Cruz residence and later, J.J.A. returned from his uncle's home with the five firearms in tow.

On October 13, 2007, through the cooperation of Quichocho, officers retrieved four shotguns from the front seat of a vehicle at the residence of Carl San Nicolas, a relative of Quichocho.

In a written statement, Quichocho informed officers that the fifth firearm, a Marlin Rifle 22 Caliber 883 serial number 11514295, was sold to Jason Salas for $50.00. Quichocho noted during the evening of October 11, 2007, he agreed to meet Jason Salas at a residence in Mangilao to drink with him. They met and Quichocho asked Mr. Salas if he was interested in purchasing a gun. He showed the defendant the firearm in the trunk of the vehicle and Mr. Salas agreed to purchase it for $50.00. Quichocho consulted with the minor, A.J.C., who agreed Mr. Salas could buy the rifle. No money was exchanged however, the rifle was given to Mr. Salas.

On October 13, 2007 GPD Officers conducted a check of the Mr. Salas' residence and no firearms were noted. Mr. Salas was questioned by GPD and denied purchasing or receiving a firearm. He indicated to officers that he knew Ignacio Quichocho through his brother in law, Roque Mantanona. He declined to provide a written statement.

Mr. Salas was booked and confined. He was subsequently released by the Attorney General's Office.
